Listen to the song and complete the lyrics with the missing words

I don't take I take tea, my dear
I like my toast done on one side
And you can it in my accent when I talk
I'm an Englishman in New York
See me walking Fifth Avenue
A walking cane here at my side
I take it everywhere I
I'm an Englishman in New York
Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York
Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York

If "manners maketh man" as said
Then he's the hero of the day
It takes a man to suffer ignorance and
Be yourself no matter what they say
Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York
Oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien
I'm an Englishman in New York

Modesty, propriety can lead to notoriety
You could end up as the only
Gentleness, sobriety so rare in this society
At night a candle's brighter than the
Takes more than combat gear to a man
Takes more than a license for a gun
Confront your enemies, avoid them you can
A gentleman will walk but never run
If "manners maketh man" as said
He's the hero of the day
It takes a man to suffer ignorance and
Be yourself no matter what they say (oh, I'm an alien, I'm a legal alien)
Be yourself no matter what they say (I'm an Englishman in New York)

"Manners maketh man" is the motto of Winchester College, Oxford from the 14th century. It means that through politeness, etiquette and charity society is saved from falling into a heap of savagery.
