You know she me
Not too for she would me
Not too loose for I would slip
To the other side of the world

You know she me
Like I could leave at time
And I could into the wire
And tell I'm free

Then it under my feet
And the buildings and the left with the wind
Left me
In a dirty city street, when I'm a to everyone
And everyone is a stranger to me

If I could to you, darling
I'd tell you all the I never said
Of how you those tears away from me
Like I couldn't

For I loved you through this wilderness
I loved you through the shit
I loved you through the best that there ever was and from the other side of the world

Then it under my feet
And the buildings and the left with the wind
Now I'm shouting at satellites
I'm screaming down theto find you

And I know this
I know this

Listen to the song and complete the lyrics with the missing words:

The other side of the world is an island the shape of a woman
And I know this place
From there, there is no escape

You know she held me
Not too tight for she would break me
Not too loose for I would slip away
To the other side of the world

You know she held me
Like I could leave at any time
And I could breathe into the wire
And tell myself I'm free

Then it turned under my feet
And the buildings and the trees left with the wind
In a dirty city street, when I'm a stranger to everyone
And everyone is a stranger to me

If I could talk to you, darling
I'd tell you all the things I never said
Of how you hid those tears away from me
Like I couldn't hear

For I loved you through this wilderness
I loved you through the shit
I loved you through the best times that there ever was
and from the other side of the world

And the buildings and the trees left with the wind
Now I'm shouting at satellites
I'm screaming down the wire to find you

The other side of the world is an island the shape of a woman
And I know this place
I know this place
